

Declaration of Accessibility

In 1998 the Equal Rights for Personswith Disabilities Law was enacted, leading to additional regulations designed to enable individualswith disabilities an opportunity to enjoy equal involvement in all areas oflife and society.

KING KONG restaurant exemplifies thelaw's practical application.

The restaurant's owners believe that everyone isentitled to live in equality, dignity, comfort and independence. As serviceproviders, our goal is to promote an experience which encompasses the public inentirety, and that includes people with disabilities. Online materials are the largestsource of free information and individuals with disabilities are also amongwebsite users. Going out to eat begins with the restaurant's website. Our viewis that everyone deserves a great surfing experience and efficient, equal andrespectful service.

That's why we've made sure that our website disability accessible.Please direct questions or requests onaccessibility to:
